

To the Premier of Alberta:

Alberta is back in debt, with our indebtedness set to reach $31 billion by 2018-19.

This is irresponsible stewardship of province's finances and an unethical burden to place on our children and grandchildren.

Former Premier Ralph Klein understood that difficult decisions needed to be made in the early 1990s to cut spending, balance the budget and eventually, in 2005 pay off Alberta's debt, in full.

We the undersigned call on the Premier of Alberta to cut spending, balance the budget, and return Alberta to debt-free status.
