

To the Premier of Alberta:

Alberta’s gag law passed in 2016 is a clear violation of the Charter right to Freedom of Expression and a clear attempt to scare off citizens from being critical of the government.

Protecting donators’ privacy is the same principle behind a secret ballot when voting – it’s nobody’s business which party you vote for or which advocacy group you donate your own money to.

Healthy political discourse requires more Albertans willing to speak up and speak out, not fewer.

We the undersigned call on the Alberta government to end its gag law.
