Dear Mr. Drover:

This is further to your request made under the Access to Information Act for information on contributions that were due for repayment but were not repaid as required over the last five years.

Attached are the records that can be disclosed. Severance has been applied in accordance with section 25 of the Act. The severed portions are withheld from disclosure pursuant to paragraphs 18(b), 18(d), 20(1)(c) and 20(1)(d) of the Act, copy attached.

Please be advised that you are entitled to complain to the Information Commissioner of Canada on matters relating to the administration of the Act, within 60 days of the receipt of this notice. Additional information regarding this matter is available at https://www.oic-ci.gc.ca/en/submitting-complaint or by calling 613-995-2410 or 1-800-267-0441 (toll-free).

If you have further questions regarding this request, please do not hesitate to contact Louise Doucet, the Agency's Director/Coordinator, Access to Information and Privacy, at 506-871-2806 or by email at louise.doucet@acoa-apeca.gc.ca.

Sincerely,

Francis Jobin
Executive Director

25 SEVERABILITY

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where a request is made to a government institution for access to a record that the head of the institution is authorized to refuse to disclose under this Act by reason of information or other material contained in the record, the head of the institution shall disclose any part of the record that does not contain, and can reasonably be severed from any part that contains, any such information or material.

18 ECONOMIC INTERESTS OF CANADA

The head of a government institution may refuse to disclose any record requested under this Act that contains
(a) trade secrets or financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that belongs to the Government of Canada or a government institution and has substantial value or is reasonably likely to have substantial value;
(b) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of a government institution or to interfere with contractual or other negotiations of a government institution;
(c) scientific or technical information obtained through research by an officer or employee of a government institution, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to deprive the officer or employee of priority of publication; or
(d) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to be materially injurious to the financial interests of the Government of Canada or the ability of the Government of Canada to manage the economy of Canada or could reasonably be expected to result in an undue benefit to any person.

20(1) THIRD PARTY INFORMATION

Subject to this section, the head of a government institution shall refuse to disclose any record requested under this Act that contains
(a) trade secrets of a third party;
(b) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that is confidential information supplied to a government institution by a third party and is treated consistently in a confidential manner by the third party;
(b.1) information that is supplied in confidence to a government institution by a third party for the preparation, maintenance, testing or implementation by the government institution of emergency management plans within the meaning of section 2 of the Emergency Management Act and that concerns the vulnerability of the third party's buildings or other structures, its networks or systems, including its computer or communications networks or systems, or the methods used to protect any of those buildings, structures, networks or systems;

(c) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to result in material financial loss or gain to, or could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of, a third party; or
(d) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to interfere with contractual or other negotiations of a third party.
