

To Premier John Horgan, Green Leader Andrew Weaver and Attorney General David Eby:

British Columbians should not be punished for owning a home in this province.

Many BC residents have lived in their homes for a generation and their property value assessments have ballooned.

Many of these homeowners are seniors on a fixed income and they cannot afford this surprise "school tax" bill costing thousands of dollars. They don't want to sell and be forced to move away from their communities.

It is not right for the government to tax these long-time residents out of their own homes.

We the undersigned call upon the government of British Columbia to STOP the School Tax on property in BC.
